IT STARTED WITH A CONVERSATION. Brainstorming about ways to promote West Hollywood's Avenues of Art & Design district—an expansive stretch of shops, showrooms and galleries frequented by interior designers, art collectors and Southern California style mavens—luxury real estate developer Billy Rose tossed ideas back and forth with Sheri Hirschfeld, visual display manager for Ann Sacks, who, at the time, was a member of the Avenues board. At the bottom of both their lists: a showhouse.

INTERIOR DESIGN Billy Rose, Billy Rose Design & Development

HOME BUILDER Eric Dobkin, Dobkin Construction, Inc.
